OCT FILMS SHOWING Cont.

VIOLETTE (12A)

Tues 28th October

Dir: Martin Provost | France / Belgium | 2013 | 139 mins | French w/Eng ST
Cast | Emmanuelle Devos, Sandrine Kiberlain, Olivier Gourmet

From the director of Séraphine comes this haunting biopic of French novelist Violette Leduc, set in Paris in WWII. We watch as she meets and falls for iconic writer and philosopher Simone de Beauvoir, mixes with other luminaries including Sartre, and enjoys a literary breakthrough. A profound and moving study of an artist whose passionate, confessional writing was ahead of its time.

EFFIE GRAY (12A)

Fri 31st October, Sat 1st & Sun 2nd November

Dir: Richard Laxton | UK | 2014 | Run time TBC
Cast | Dakota Fanning, Emma Thompson, Greg Wise, Tom Sturridge, Claudia Cardinale, David Suchet

A gorgeous drama telling the story of Effie Gray (Dakota Fanning), whose marriage to Victorian art critic John Ruskin (Greg Wise) famously ended unconsummated, apparently due to Ruskin's disgust at the reality of her body as opposed to the artistically perfect feminine ideal. But is this true? Thompson's intelligent screenplay explores further, also detailing Effie's sensational new relationship with painter John Everett Millais.
