Dir: Stephanie Spray, Pachó Velez | Nepal, USA | 2013 | 118 mins | Nepali W/Eng subtitles | Documentary

This engrossing documentary observes Hindu pilgrims as they take a spectacular cable car ride – high above the Nepali jungle – on an ancient route to the famed Manakamana temple. The filmmakers have used a very simple format; with passengers telling their stories to camera whilst travelling to this intensely sacred and mystical place – but the cumulative effect is utterly spellbinding.

A record of a truly astonishing adventure, Kon-Tiki is based on legendary explorer Thor Heyerdal's epic 4,300-mile crossing of the Pacific on a balsawood raft in 1947, in an effort to prove that it was possible for South Americans to settle in Polynesia in pre-Columbian times. Navigating sharks, storms and the wide open sea, the crew battle nature in order to reach their destination.

Fri 9th to Sun 11th and Weds 14th to Thurs 15th January

Dir: Tim Burton | USA | 2014 | 106 mins

Cast | Amy Adams, Krysten Ritter, Christoph Waltz

Tim Burton's latest, a hugely enjoyable, kookily framed biopic, stars Amy Adams as artist Margaret Keane, whose trademark canvases - usually depicting children with huge doe eyes - were fraudulently claimed by her husband Walter (Christoph Waltz) as his own work in the 50s and 60s. But the ruse puts heavy pressure on their marriage, and before long they're headed for court.

The third and final instalment of Peter Jackson's epic, bombastic Hobbit series, Bilbo, Thorin and their company of Dwarves are forced to take up arms in a war against a flock of new combatants to prevent the terrifying Smaug from acquiring a kingdom of treasure, and obliterating all of Middle-Earth. STATIONS OF THE CROSS (15)

Sun 18th January

Dir: Dietrich Brüggemann | Germany | 2014 | 107 mins | German W/Eng subtitles

Cast | Lucie Aron, Anna Brüggemann, Michael Kamp

A precise and riveting drama that superbly weaves reality and allegory, Stations of the Cross - named after the series of artistic representations of Christ carrying the cross to his crucifixion - is about the stifling upbringing of a young girl raised in a strict Catholic family and her difficulty in navigating the strictures of her faith and the appeal of normal teenage life.

FOXCATCHER (15)

Fri 23rd to Thurs 29th January

Dir: Bennett Miller | USA | 2014 | 134 mins

Cast | Steve Carell, Channing Tatum, Mark Ruffalo, Vanessa Redgrave

Steve Carell (Little Miss Sunshine) gives a barnstorming performance in Bennett Miller's (Capote) wonderfully dark film dramatising the true story of Olympic Wrestling Champion Mark Schultz (Channing Tatum), his brother Dave (Mark Ruffalo) and their paranoid-schizophrenic coach, John du Pont (Carell). With equally outstanding turns from Tatum and Ruffalo, it's an insightful, resonant study of a twisted American dream.

2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY (U)

Sun 25th January

Dir: Stanley Kubrick | UK | re: 2014 | 160 mins

Cast | Keir Dullea, Gary Lockwood, William Sylvester, Daniel Richter, Leonard Rossiter

Heralded in 1968 as the most striking sci-fi film ever, Stanley Kubrick's epic meditation on human evolution shines brilliantly 46 years later in a new BFI restoration. A highly evolved civilisation sets up mysterious monolithic objects on Earth, the Moon, and in orbit around Jupiter, which impart vital survival information to ancient man, and later signal man to travel deep into space. When man arrives on the great civilisations planet he is reborn with immense powers of wisdom and strength.

Adapted from Vera Brittain's classic memoir, famed for its vivid portrayal of a generation lost to WWI, the indelibly moving Testament of Youth stars Alicia Vikander as the young Vera, showing her as a carefree teenager before the war's shattering impact on her and her contemporaries' lives, futures and dreams.

Dir: Shawn Levy | UK | 2014 | 98 mins

The final entry in the hit trilogy, sees Larry (Ben Stiller) travel to the British Museum to restore the magic which brings his museum exhibit friends to life. The powers of the Tablet of Akhmenrah are beginning to die out, which prompts Larry to embark on a globe-spanning quest to restore them, uniting old and new characters including Theodore Roosevelt (Robin Williams in his final performance), Jedediah (Owen Wilson) and Lancelot (Dan Stevens).

EASTERN BOYS (15)

Sun 1st & Thurs 5th February

Dir | Robin Campillo | France | 2013 | 126 mins | French W/Eng subtitles

Cast | Olivier Rabourdin, Kirill Emelyanov, Daniil Vorobyev

Robin Campillo, writer of Laurent Cantet's Palme d'Or winner The Class and creator of the acclaimed television series The Returned, directs this tense, erotically charged thriller about a young gay hustler in Paris. Cleverly juxtaposing tonalities, Campillo layers a touching love story over a nail-biting thriller that also observes some of the bleaker aspects of inter-EU immigration.
