Sun 27th September & Thurs 1st October

Dir: Terry Jones | USA | 2015 | 85 mins
Cast | Simon Pegg, Kate Beckinsale, Eddie Izzard, Joanna Lumley, Robin Williams

Simon Pegg (Hot Fuzz) stars in Terry Jones' (The Life of Brian) comedy as a disillusioned teacher granted magical powers by some eccentric aliens (voiced by all the Pythons). As he struggles to deal with his newfound powers, he calls upon his dog Dennis (voiced by Robin Williams) to help out.

THE PRESIDENT (15)

Mon 28th September

Dir: Mohsen Makhmalbaf | France / Georgia / Germany / UK | 2014 | 105 mins | Georgian w/Eng Subtitles
Cast | Misha Gomiashvili, Dachi Orvelashvili

From major Iranian filmmaker Mohsen Makhmalbaf (Kandahar, Gabbeh, The Gardener) comes this striking, vastly absorbing satirical drama that riffs on recent political events in eastern Europe and the Middle East – following the ageing dictator (Misha Gomiashvili) of an unnamed country; who, deposed by a coup, must disguise himself and his young grandson to stay alive amongst the people he formerly oppressed.

ROGER WATERS' THE WALL (12A)

Tues 29th September

Dir: Sean Evans and Roger Waters | UK 2015 | 155 mins

Roger Waters' The Wall, which had its World Premiere at last year's Toronto Film Festival, is an event movie like no other. An immersive concert experience of the classic Pink Floyd album, a road movie of Waters' reckoning with past, and a stirring anti-war film. It is a truly breathtaking cinematic experience. Tickets £12/£11 via www.wegotickets.com/event/322960 or during box office hours.

THE WOLFPACK (15)

Weds 30th September

Dir: Crystal Moselle | USA | 2015 | 90 mins
Documentary

This haunting, astonishing documentary – reminiscent of Capturing the Friedmans – follows six brothers who are confined to a New York apartment by their cautious parents. Unable to physically explore the world, they do so instead via the world of film – and when they finally taste freedom, the expectations they've built up through cinema don't always translate to reality. Astounding.
