ROYAL OPERA:
FIDELIO (ADV.12A)
Tues 17th March at 7.15pm (doors 6.15pm) | Tickets Priced £17/£15/£13

Beethoven's only opera is a masterpiece, an uplifting story of risk and triumph. In this new production, conducted by Antonio Pappano, Jonas Kaufmann plays the political prisoner Florestan, and Lise Davidsen his wife Leonore (disguised as 'Fidelio') who daringly sets out to rescue him. Set in strong counterpoint are the ingredients of domestic intrigue, determined love and the cruelty of an oppressive regime. Tobias Kratzer's new staging brings together the dark reality of the French Revolutionary 'Terror' and our own time to illuminate Fidelio's inspiring message of shared humanity.

From the precarious frozen waters of Russia's Lake Baikal to Miami in the throes of Hurricane Irma to Venezuela's mighty Angel Falls, water is Aquarela's main character, with director Victor Kossakovsky capturing her many personalities in startling cinematic clarity.

Dir: Taika Waititi | US | 2020 | 108 mins

Cast: Roman Griffin Davis, Thomasin McKenzie, Taika Waititi, Rebel Wilson, Stephen Merchant, Alfie Allen, Sam Rockwell, Scarlett Johansson

Writer director Taika Waititi (Thor: Ragnarok, Hunt For The Wilderpeople, What We Do in the Shadows), brings his signature style of humour and pathos to his latest film, JoJo Rabbit, a World War II satire that follows a lonely German boy (Roman Griffin Davis), whose world view is turned upside down when he discovers his single mother (Scarlett Johansson) is hiding a young girl (Thomasin McKenzie) in her attic. Aided only by his idiotic imaginary friend, Adolf Hitler (Taika Waititi), Jojo must confront his naive patriotism. Tackling the ludicrousness of racism and nationalism head on, Waititi has crafted an audacious black comedy that besides clearly being very timely, also boasts great emotional depth and tenderness. With lovely central performances from Davis and McKenzie and a fantastic wider cast that also includes Stephen Merchant, Sam Rockwell and Rebel Wilson, JoJo Rabbit is riotously funny, moving and relevant.

BROCHURE CHANGES!

From next month we're changing the look of the monthly brochure. We're aware that more and more of you are using our (new look!) website - www.hbph.co.uk - to check the programme, downloading the PDF of the brochure and using social media to find out what's screening, and we welcome that.

With rising printing costs and our commitment to working with Hebden Royd Town Council to reduce our carbon footprint and printed paper waste, we're reverting to an A3 programme format.

Delivering or posting our programmes out to 140 venues each month is also no longer sustainable. We will continue to supply brochures to local town libraries, post offices, tourist information / visitor centres, community centres and entertainment venues for collection by customers, in addition to having them outside the cinema for collection from 8am to 10pm.

We hope you approve of the updated brochure, which will be available to pick up / download towards the end of January. We look forward to seeing you in 2020 for our 99th year as a picture house.
