Mon 31st August

Dir: Dziga Vertov | Russia | 1929 | 68 mins | Silent

It's a great city-symphony: offering an impressionistic, lyrical portrait of a day in the life of Moscow's masses with a dazzling display of imagination and technique.

This highly original debut from French director Thomas Cailley is a comedic take on coming-of-age romance, set in the sun-drenched south of France. This heartfelt, beautifully written gem is part screwball, part rom-com and wholly enjoyable.

THE FIRST FILM (PG)

Sun 9th August

Dir: David Wilkinson | UK | 2015 | 110 mins

Documentary

Was the film industry born in Yorkshire? That's the question asked by David Wilkinson in this enthralling documentary, the fruit of a decades-long quest to prove to the world that the birthplace of motion pictures was not America or France but rather, Leeds; and the first true filmmaker not Edison or the Lumière brothers, but the enigmatic and little-known Louis Le Prince. This film includes an introduction with the film's director, David Wilkinson.

Marco Ferreri's subversive story of four gourmands who, bored with their mundane lives, decide to end it all by eating themselves to death in a culinary and sexual orgy of impeccable food, fine wines and some extremely accommodating women. Made in 1972, it still tests the limits of shockability, but behind the horror is a satire on life, the world and appetites in general.

DOCTOR PROCTOR'S FART POWDER (PG)

Dir: Arild Frøhlich | Norway | 2014 | 85 mins | Norwegian w/Eng Subtitles

Crime writer Jo Nesbø's (Headhunters) children's book series Doctor Proctor is reminiscent of Roald Dahl with its anarchic, free-wheeling and pomp-puncturing humour. Watch as the Doctor fulfils his dream of becoming a famous inventor – with a super-strength fart powder that can propel people into outer space! With the help of new friends, Doctor Proctor is ready to share his invention worldwide.

Oscar-winners Diane Keaton and Morgan Freeman star in Richard Loncraine's wise comedy on life, love and real estate as married couple and Brooklyn-dwellers Ruth and Alex as they decide to put their apartment on the market. This is a thoughtful film, played with such relaxed comedic relish by Freeman and Keaton that it's a joy to spend time in their company.

SALT OF THE EARTH (12A)

Sun 16th & Weds 19th August

Dir: Wim Wenders | France / Brazil / Italy | 2015 | 110 mins

Documentary

The ravishing The Salt of the Earth is Wim Wenders' (Paris, Texas; Pina) documentary portrait of Brazilian photographer Sebastião Salgado, famous for his mid-1980s shots of Brazil's biblically vast gold mines and their workers. Depicting Salgado's numerous travels and his work in war zones – including the Rwandan genocide – Wenders exploits the power of Salgado's stunning images. A moving, life-affirming tribute.

Dir: Mia Hansen-Løve | France | 2014 | 131 mins | French w/Eng Subtitles

Cast | Félix de Givry, Pauline Etienne, Vincent Macaigne

Mia Hansen-Løve's (The Father of My Children) Eden follows Paul, a young Parisian DJ caught up in the 90s dance music scene. Hurtling through studio sessions and club nights, he follows success around the globe; but his personal life is harder to manage. With a glorious, nostalgic 90s soundtrack, Eden captures the euphoria of being consumed by something you love.

Dir: Pete Docter, Ronnie Del Carmen | USA | 2015 | 102 mins

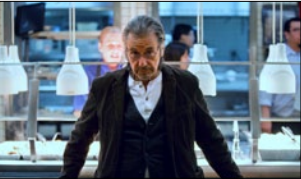

Voice cast | Amy Poehler, Phyllis Smith, Mindy Kaling, Bill Hader, Lewis Black, Diane Lane, Kyle MacLachlan

There's a nifty conceit behind this buoyant new animation from the directors of Up: all the characters personify the thoughts and fears inside an 11-year-old girl's head. Amy Poehler, Mindy Kaling, Bill Hader help voice emotions including Joy, Fear and Anger, working to help Riley as she moves house and starts at a new school. Moving and very heartening for both children and parents alike.

MARSHLAND (15)

Sat 22nd, Mon 24th & Thurs 27th August

Dir: Alberto Rodríguez | Spain | 2014 | 104 mins | Spanish w/Eng Subtitles

Cast | Javier Gutiérrez, Raúl Arévalo, María Varod

Like a Spanish True Detective, this superb period thriller - winner of 10 Goya Awards - is from writer/director Alberto Rodríguez, and follows two ideologically opposed detectives in the moody Andalaz swamplands, on the hunt for the brutal murderer attacking young women. Set against the political volatility of the 80s, it's a pacy, atmospheric thriller beautifully capturing a forgotten corner of Spain.
